Anniversary of Father Mathew Observed by Temperance Society with Whist and Dance-Harvest Supper Given by Ladies' Aid Society-Enumeration of School Children.

The anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew was pleasingly observed Wednesday evening by the Father Mathew Total Abstinence society, with a whist and dance, about a hundred of the members and their lady friends being present to enjoy the festivities. The evening was begun at 8 o'clock with whist, of which 20 tables were played, the awards being: First lady's prize, Miss Katherine Leonard, pocketbook; second, Miss Mary Downing, brooch pin: consolation, Miss Nora Brennan; first man's prize, Patrick Brennan; first man's prize, Patrick Downing cuff links; second, Phillas Gladue, necktle; consolation, Fellx

Rev. James J. Smith, with Rev. W. A. Keefe, visited the rooms during the evening, and was called upon for reevening, and was called upon for remarks. In addressing the members of the society, Father Smith congratulated them upon their observance of the day, saying that each year it was made more pleasant. Each year you have shown by your work the appreciation of the cause. The temperance cause will never cease to exist and the work will only be accomplished by men who practice temperance by men who practice temperance thomselves and set the right exam-ple. No other method will succeed. Be temperate in all things and be zeal-ous to spread the doctrine among others. Teach the youth of the par-ish the great need of temperance. To-

After refreshments of cake and ice After refreshments of case and the cream were served, the evening was rounded out with dancing, Malone's orchestra furnishing music.

The success of the evening was largely due to the work of President Joseph A. Beliefleur, and the entertainment committee, which comprises Cornelius J. Downes, chairman, Joseph E. O'Sullivan, Simon J. Fahey, Patrick F. Shea, M. J. Carroll and Philias Gladue, who are now making arrange-ments for another dance in January.

HARVEST SUPPER.

Enjoyable Affair Given by Ladies' Aid Society of Congregational Church.

A harvest supper that was most en-oyable and will result in a handsome addition to their treasury was given Wednesday evening between the hours of 6 and 8 by the Ladies' Aid society of the Greaneville Congregational church in the church basement, which church in the church basement, which was decorated for the occasion. The tables were arranged attractively about the room and all the patrons who pariook of the fine supper commended the work of the committee in charge, Mrs. William Kramer, chairman, Mrs. John McDougall, Sr., Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. Paul Zahs and Mrs. Louis O. Potter.

The officers of the Ladies' Ald society, re-elected at a recent meeting, are: Mrs. S. S. Lathrop, president; Mrs. Archibald Gilchrist, vice president; Mrs. Louis O. Potter, secretary, and Mrs. Thomas Young, treasurer.

Birthday Anniversary of Twins.

A very pleasant birthday party was held Tuesday evening at the home of Policeman ami Mrs. John T. Casey of Prospect street, when their twin daughters, Misses Katherine and Sadie Casey, celebrated their 11th birthdays. Their playmates and friends gathered to help them enjoy the occasion, and in all there was a merry party of 22 young people. Games of many kinds were played and there was music. Many tokens of regard were received by the charming hostesses. A feature of the evening was the twin birthday cakes, each illuminated with the proper number of candles. It was a happy Birthday Anniversary of Twins.

The spotless appearance of the home, the happy faces of the children, and the glowing reports from Mrs. Frank A. Mitchell, the secretary, and the other members of the committee of visitors, reflected the general success of the year's work throughout the county, and made manifest the growing usefulness of the home and its work.

County Commissioner Williams of Mystic opened the meeting at 11.30 o'clock and prayer was offered by City Missionary Rev. C. A. Northrop. Introducing the secretary, Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. Williams defined the meaning of temporary, the idea being that children are kept at the home no longer than good homes can be found for them. Good families are not as easily found as might be, and therefore there are about ninety children.

In dealing with boys and girls during the period of adolescence much difficulty is experienced in protecting them, not only from those who would lead them into wrong doing, but from their own impulses, and uncontrolled desires. A letter from Thomas P. Norman of Ledyard stated that he visited a boy who had a great ambition to work in a livery stable. A colored girl down there is anxious to go south. One boy returned to the home because he was not sent to school. Another er became a companion to a Meriden girl, and is now with a relative of this girl in New Haven. She is attending high school, taking the academic course. She goes to school in the afternoon and works in the morning. The girl writes that she studies ancient history for a change. Mrs. A. P.
